LIBRARY REPORT

Of The Board of Directors For
The Hopkinsville Public
Library.

THE THIRD ANNUAL REPORT.

Showing More Than 12,000
Volumes Circulated In Nine Months.

"To the City Council of the City of Hopkinsville, Ky.
The Board of Directors of the Hopkinsville Public Library herewith submit their annual report for the year ending July 1st, 1915.

We would respectfully report that since our last report was made to your Honorable Body, dated July 1st, 1914, that we have completed the Library Building, on the lot purchased by the City for said purpose, situated on the corner of 8th and Liberty streets, in the City of Hopkinsville, Kentucky, at a total cost of FIFTEEN THOUSAND ($15,000) dollars, for the building and furnishings, and that we now have one of the most complete and up-to-date Library Buildings in the State of Kentucky, for a city of the population of Hopkinsville.

Said building was completed about September 1st, 1914, and opened to the public October 1st, 1914.

For many years there has been operated a semi-public Library in the City of Hopkinsville, same having been maintained by private subscriptions, and the patrons of same had accumulated an excellent collection of books, which was generously donated to the Public Library, and we now have the following number of volumes in the Library, to wit: Number of volumes received from the old Library.....2,132

Books donated since the opening of the Library..... 541
Books purchased..... 525

Miscellaneous..... 33

Making total number of books.....3,231

Divided as follows:

Fiction—1,875 volumes.

Non-Fiction—1,356 volumes.

We subscribe for and have on the tables for the use of the reading public:

Newspapers—6.

The Library is kept open six hours each day, four hours in the afternoon and two hours at night, except during the months of July and August, same is open 2 1/2 hours in the morning and 3 1/2 hours in the afternoon. Your Board would like to be able to keep the Library open for a longer period of time each day, but we cannot do so without an Assistant Librarian, and we do not feel that we would be justified in employing an Assistant under the present appropriation.

The Library is being extensively patronized by the reading public and we believe is a great institution and of great benefit to our City, and that the people are appreciating same more and more as they become educated to its usefulness.

For the nine months that same has been open to the public from October 1st, 1914, to July 1st, 1915, there has been circulated 12,139 volumes, besides reference books and periodicals and magazines, which have been used and read in the Library.

A Kentucky Child.

Under the heading, "A Kentucky Beauty," there appeared the other day in the Louisville Times a picture of little Miss Allie Troutman, of Paducah, who is now on her way to California under the chaperonage of her mother, Mrs. R. H. Troutman, to accept an offer as one of the Universal movie stars. Miss Troutman, who is only six years old, was born in Louisville but was raised in Paducah, her parents living at Nineteenth and Adams streets. She is well known in Paducah, where her many talents are constantly in demand at entertainments and theatricals.

In the story accompanying the cut, the Times says:

"Little Miss Troutman is exceptionally talented, being an actress, a vocalist and a premier dancer. She has been featured in many entertainments and is wonderfully witching and always carries off first honors."

Friends of both the little miss and her parents are pleased to learn of her new opportunity and are confident that she will make good. Her appearance on the screen is awaited with much interest.—Paducah Sun.

Tried To Sink Orduna.

A submarine attack made without warning on the British liner Orduna, off the British coast, was reported by passengers when the steamer arrived at New York from Liverpool. The Orduna carried 227 passengers, including twenty-two Americans. The torpedo missed her, and none of a half-dozen shells fired at her when the submarine chased the steamer took effect.

Soldier Shocked.

Camp Tandy Ellis, at Owensboro, was christened with water Friday night in the heavy storm which swept over that city. Private Clyde Handley, of the Third regiment, who was standing near a tree which was struck by lightning, was rendered unconscious for a while.

Bold Land Fraud.

A year ago a bank in Butler county, Mo., loaned a stranger $3,500 on the farm of W. P. Winn, of Winchester, Ky., situated in Vass county, Mo., secured by a forged mortgage that Winn knows nothing about.
